12. [redacted] Talked with [redacted] 25X1 regarding Mr. Maury's most recent conversation with Representative David Henderson (D., N. C.), on the [redacted] cases. I told [redacted] that Henderson did not want to bother the Army Comptroller people on these cases, but asked if we could pass the word to them that if the issue of compensation for hazardous duty pay could not be resolved in favor of the officers concerned, he was ready to take the matter up at the highest level in the Army and in GAO. Mr [redacted] said he would ask his liaison contact to pass this message to the Army Comptroller's office. 25X1 25X1 25X1

13. [redacted] - LLM) Called [redacted] General Counsel, NSA, in the interest of keeping him abreast of developments on the Ervin bill, S. 782, and brought him up to date on several matters, including the Hampton letter, the transmittal of Agency views, and the Henderson Subcommittee meeting scheduled for Wednesday. [redacted] was particularly pleased that Chairman Rivers, House Armed Services Committee, had included specific reference to NSA in his letter to Chairman Henderson. 25X1 25X1

15. [redacted] - LLM) Called Theodore Kazy, Senior Staff Assistant, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and told him that the Agency's views on the Ervin bill had been delivered to Chairman Henderson's office today and that it was substantially similar to the draft reviewed with him on 23 June. Kazy thanked us for keeping him up to date and said he thought there would be no problem to get a copy of our report. He told me of the Henderson Subcommittee's meeting scheduled for Wednesday and said there were rumors that the Subcommittee might consider introducing its own bill, although he has not seen a copy.
